LOCAL RAILROAD MEN FIGURE IN PROMOTIONS

E. F. Krahmer Becomes Supervising Agent of Division

SUCCEEDS E. M. BILES

J. B. Tussing is Appointed Local Agent and H. C Yon Goes to W. Brownsville

Promotions and transfers of an important nature have been announced on the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania Railroad in which W. F. Krahmer, agent at the Charleroi office and J. B. Tussing, of Charleroi, and Harry C. Yon, formerly of Charleroi, figure prominently. By the change Mr. Krahmer, who has been located in charge of the Charleroi office with the title of passenger, baggage and freight agen and Saving. Fund Depository at Charleroi. will be made supervising agent of the Monongahela division, and Mr. Tussing will take Mr. Krahmer's place. The changes will be effective on next Monday, July 14.

The general transfer of men has been occasioned primarily by the shooting recently of J. A. McNair, passenger agent at Pennsylvania station, Pittsburg.

E. M. Biles, who has been the supervising agent of the Monongahela division assumes the position left vacant by the untimely demise of Mr. McNair. Mr. Krahmer is moved to Mr. Biles' place. J. B. Tussing has been the freight and scale agent at West Brownsville and he will simply be brought to Charleroi. Harry C. Yon who has been an extra agent will become freight and scale agent at West Brownsville. David S. Brown of South Duquesne will become an extra passenger baggage and freight agent and Savings Fund Depository.

Mr. Krahmer who becomes supervising agent has been connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad 24 years, 13 of which he spent in Charleroi as agent. He took employment with the railroad first at West Elizabeth and served in various positions, such as clerk and operator until he was transferred to Charleroi to take the position here. His work as agent has been of such nature as to attract the attention of the officials. In his new duties he will directly answerable to A. G. Mitchell, the superintendent of the Monongahela division and he will have considerable power and responsibility.

Like Mr. Krahmer, Mr. Tussing has been with the railroad several years. He lives in Charleroi and his friends here are happy to hear of his promotion to the agency at the local station, as they are happy to hear of the promotion of Mr. Krahmer. Both men are popular.

Mr. Yon formerly a resident of Charleroi and has numerous friend here. The promotions and transfers all around are such as to gratify railroad men. Mr. Biles though he is not widely known in Charleroi, is recognized as a man eminetly fitted for the duties that will fall upon him

Well Shows Good Flow

Greensboro Gas Company Believes It Has Made Lucky Strike

After drilling for about 35 days the Greensboro Gas company has struck what it is believed will prove a good flow of gas on the farm of the Jacobs heirs, near Brownsville. The company has been drilling on several farms in the vicinity of Brownsville and this is the first they have struck gas of a payng nature. The Greensboro Gas furnishes gas to Charleroi, California and Brownsville, among other towns.

AFTER STATE BANNER

County Adult Class Superintendent Gets Campaign Started

SENDS OUT LETTERS

Elected superintendent of the Organized Adult Bible Class department of the Washington County Sabbath School Association at the recent meeting in Washington, W. S. James of Charleroi is laying plans for an active campaign that will bring to Washington county the state banner for perfecton in the work. Mr. James is preparing letters to be sent out to the district superintendents of the Adult Bble class work and to district presidents, urging their help and cooperaton.

In his letters Mr. James asks that all classes be rounded up in the county that are already organized and reports made by the first of August and that whatever classes are in need of being organized to organize them.

The State convention is to be held this year on October 8, 9, and 10. Annually a state banner is awarded to the county showing the best results and it is this banner that Mr. James and his co-workers are going to make an effort to secure.

STRIKE IS DECLARED AT CRESCENT MINE

Miners Complain That Employing Company Refuses to Listen to Grievances and Follow Complaints With Action

Nine hundred men walked out at the Crescent mine of the River Coal company Friday comprising practically the entire force and work is at a standstill with prospects for a long and hard fought strike.

The strike is the result of dissatisfaction which has been long brewing but the matter was brought to a head by the discharge of two machine men, George Campbell and Harry Mitchell for alleged minor offenses. Friction between the officials and the miners has also grown out of the demand of the miners for 50 cents pay for drilling nine foot holes, the extra three feet of auger to be furnished by the company. This the company refused to do, offering but 45 cents, miners to furnish the extension to the augers themselves.

Another contributing cause was the fact that the miners wished to be notified when a man was killed in the mine so that work could be suspended that day.

A meeting was held Thursday night at which the grievances were laid before the miners and a strike was instructed. Another meeting was held Friday at Dunsytown at which the miners were addressed by speakers in their own tongue.

The Crescent, one of the largest mines on the river is lying idle and will remain so until some agreement can be reached between employers and miners.

RIVER SHOWS HOW IT MIGHT ACT WHEN MAD

Some indication of what might happen in case of a heavy flood while the work on the new coffer dam at Lock No. 4 is under way was given Friday. The river attained a stage of about one-half foot over the coffer dam, work and nearly to the top of the regular lock. It so happened that little damage was done, only delay being occasioned, but the power of the water was demonstrated. After work on the new lock is well under way a flood is likely to cause great trouble.

MONESSEN MAN DIES SUDDENLY; KNOWN HERE

Harry N. Blumling, aged 32 years assistant master mechanic at the Pittsburg Steel plant and one of the best known young men of Monessen, is dead at his home on Schoonmaker avenue, that borough, from uremic poisoning. Mr. Blumling's illness was of less than one week's duration. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blumling of Sharpsburg, who with his widow the parents and four brother sand three sisters survive. His widow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. King of Monessen. Mr. Blumling was a member of the Knights of Columbus, Knights of St. George, Protected Home Circle, the Elks and the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Sharpsburg.

MRS. MELISSA WINNETT DIES IN FALLOWFIELD

Mrs. Melissa Isabel Winnet aged 53 the wife of Joseph Winnett of Fallowfield township, died on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock following an illness of some duration. Surviving are four daughters and one son. Mrs. Winnett was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dickson Sphar, of Fallowfield. Services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late home and interment will be in the Maple Creek cemetery.

CICERO GETS SENTENCE TO WORKHOUSE

Frank Cicero, convicted at the May term of criminal court on a charge of manslaughter, was sentenced Thursday afternoon by Judge R. S. Holt, of Beaver county, who sat in the trial of the case, to pay the costs fine of $1 and to undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for a year and six months.

Following the conviction of Frank Cicero his counsel, J. Olan Yarnell and Underwood & Meloy filed a motion to have the verdict set aside. The matter was put on the argument list and held up until Judge Holt could find time to come to Washington to hear the arguments.

R. G. Miller, district attorney, argued the case for the commonwealth. Following the argument the court overruled the motion of the defendant's counsel. District Attorney Miller moved for judgment and Cicero was sentenced.

The crime for which he was convicted was the killing of Santo Cicero at California on Christmas morning last. At the same time Frank Geneoa was fatally wounded and died later.

Tried with Frank Cicero was Charles Darbin and John Darbin, brothers, who were acquainted. They were also known under the name of Spallino. The killing of Santo Cicero and Frank Genec was the outcome of a fight that started over a card game at the Darbin home on Christmas eve and prolonged into Christmas morning.

The evidence showed a general fight, several guns fired and promiscuous shooting.

The conviction of Frank Cicero placed him in the position of being guilty of killing his own brother. After the fight of that morning all the participants disappeared. The Darbins were apprehended at Streator Ill., and Frank Cicero later gave himself up. Others who were at the Darbin place at the time of the fight were never apprehended.

COUNCIL WILL TAKE UP PROPOSED ROAD CHANGES

May Assist State in McKean Avenue Improvement

WIDENING NECESSARY

Commonwealth Will Pave But 16 Feet of 60--Petition May be Circulated

That 16 feet of paving along a 60 foot street is not sufficient apparently is the belief of council, and on next Monday night that body will hold a meeting in the borough chambers to consider if some arrangements can be made by which McKean avenue leading from First street to the Maple Creek bridge can be improved the entire width when the state starts construction.

The state contract on the McKean avenue section is held by Hastings and Piper. They are to pave with brick paving block 16 feet of the street, and they will begin work it is understood as soon as they complete their work on Lincoln avenue extension. From present indications that will be before long.

Probably the action council will take will be to endeavor to get the property holders along that section of McKean avenue to sign a petition that will be prepared for them. According to law the property holders have a share of the paving to pay for when a street is paved and the law is that they petition when they desire a street paved. If council should originate a petition it would be to get away from a technicality.

It is understood the state highway work will be done along both sides of the Pittsburg Railways tracks. Between the tracks it is expected the railways company will pave. That with 16 feet to be done by the state will make 23 feet of a width. Allowance must be made for 12 foot sidewalks on both sides of the street. That would leave to be paved by the borough and property holders something like 15 feet.

The borough would have of this one third, the property holders on the east side one third, and the property holders on the west side the other third. In other words each property holder would have approximately 4 1-3 feet to pay for, and the borough would have the same amount.

Providing the paving proposal looks feasible after council considers it, instructions will be given to the clerk to have an ordinance prepared. Council will not waste time on the matter after it takes it up. One reason for the haste is because of the state's proposal to re-construct the road leading from Maple Creek bridge southward to the Belle Vernon-Speers bridge in Speers. This work it is believed will be done this fall by the state, the highway department having announced that it wil receive bids July 31 on the work.

Playgrounds Profit From Baseball Contests Locally

REGULAR REPORT MADE

Through two benefit baseball games played during the spring approximately $200 was realized for the playgrounds according to a report made today by John B. Schafer, president of the Playgrounds Auxiliary. The first game was played between the Indianapolis Federal league team, of which Bill Phillops is the manager and the Charleroi Independents. The second game was played between two teams selected from among the business men.

As a financial proposition the Indianapolis-Charleroi game was the best, the sum of $147.05 being realized. The total amount taken in for this game was $176.72 and expenses were $ 29.67.

The more recent game between the business men's teams resulted in $54.05 being cleared. The total amount received for this game was $60.45, and the expenses amounted to $6.40. This makes the aggregate total $202.-10.

THE PEOPLE TO ACT.

The fact that the politicians of Pittsburg are not breaking their necks to get into the mayoralty contest at the coming primaries in September is significant. One of the chief reasons for the delay in announcing on the part of prospective candidates is that Governor Tener has not yet disposed of the non-partisan ballot act passed by the last legislature. This act, if approveed, puts a different construction on the campaign. It would compel every candidate to announce impersonally without the backing of a party organization, and to make the campaign on his own personal merits. Until the governor either approves or vetoes the act, prospective candidates do not know where they are at.

Another reason, that is causing candidates to hesitate in announcing is the feeling that the people and not the politicians are going to determine the coming election. All the civic and religious bodies are preparing to take a hand, and the candidate wants to make sure that he can stand well with the people as well as the politicians. The voters who are interested in good government and efficient public service, and who outnumber the politicians five to one, are taking more interest in public affairs lately and coming events indicate that the old regime in politics has some hard sledding in store for it. This sentment is prevalent over all the country, and is manifested right here in Charleroi. There is evidence on all sides that the people are aroused over the type of public service they have been getting, and as has been potently remarked, when the people get mad clear through, there is no resisting them.

GOOD CROPS.

Along with the reports of the national department of agriculture that while the intelligence gleaned from all over the country do not indicate record breaking crops conditions are fair, and predictons are no crop will be a failure, is the announcement from varous parts of this county that the outlook is equally good. Throughout Washington county it is stated that wheat, oats and hay are almost up to the standard, while corn promises to be equal to the crop of last year.

This is welcome intelligence. The weather conditions have been most unfavorable this season, floods and frosts prevailing over wide areas of the country at different times The damage, however is not so wide-spread as feared, and crop indications are average at least. An average crop, however, does not indicate that food products will be any lower. On the contrary they will be higher, if anything, as this is now a consuming instead of a producing nation agriculturally. Only more and better farming will relieve the situation in regard to the high cost of living and this must be realized widely before all our waste farming resources are utilized. It is fortunate that an average crop is indicated, as anything below this would mean big advances in the cost of food products.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Coming home on a Pittsburg car the other evening," said a Charleroi resident, "I was amused at a little incident that occurred while we were in the suburbs. The car was crowded, and two women hanging onto a strap with their backs to each othe happened to turn about just as one of them signaled the car to stop at a street corner. As she started for the door she recognized the woman she had been standing near and immediately stopped to talk.

"Oh, Julia," she exclaimed, 'I didn't know that was you standing near me. Where have you been keeping yourself? I haven't seen you for an age.' And she branched off into a loud discourse, telling all about herself and her prospective actions during the season.

"In the meantime the conductor, waiting a reasonable length of time and seeing no one alight, signaled the car to go on. About the middle of the block the talkative woman recollected herself and found that she had been carried past her destination.

"'I will most assuredly report you,' she indignately informed the conductor, as she alighted at the next corner."

A recent visitor to the Gettysburg encampment states that one of the most interesting places there was the lost and found bureau, located under the benches in the big tent. Everything found on the grounds was brought there and thousands applied every day for missing articles.

There were at least 100 crutches piled up in the bureau, a dozen or so applicants having called for them. Those who came to redeem them lost crutches seldom recognize them and most of them go awoy with some body else's.

There was one wooden leg also lying unclaimed. It was brought in by a Boy Scout, who had found it under a tree.

Several sets of false teeth were found.

Cattle Starved in House.

Two yearling cattle were found dead, shut in a small room in an empty house on the John Sprowls farm West Finley this week. The entire affair is somewhat surrounded by mystery as it is not known how the cattle could get into the small room in the house. They were in a small bedroom of the house and had evidently been dead for several days.

BASEBALL FOR THE FARMER

Possibly the Game Might Be of Benefit to Him, But It Is Hardly Indispensable.

Baseball never has been regarded exclusively as a city product. While it is true that the cities supply the enormous crowds that support the big leagues, it is equally true that many of the players in those leagues are graduates of the "bush" leagues. The country boy has an equal chance with the city boy to win the high honors and generous emoluments of a successful ball player. The farmer himself has not come directly in touch with the national game, perhaps, except on a rare holiday. A professor in the Kansas State Agricultural college calls this a mistake. Familiarity with the game, he believes, would promote success in agriculture. If the farmer would play ball "it would take the shamble out of his walk" and "make him decide quicky." This is an interesting theory, but it will not be universally accepted. Some will contend that the motor car has already taken the "shamble" out of the farmer's walk. Others will insist that handling a high spirited horse or pitching a load of hay on a wagon while a thunderstorm is gathering is just as valuable in training his mental faculties to quick action.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Rose Culture in Bulgaria.

White and red roses are grown, the former being easier to cultivate, but giving only about half as much oil of an inferior quality. The individual growers distil their own oil. Twelve to fifteen kilos of roses are distilled with 60 kilos of water until 12 kilos of distillate are obtained; eight to ten such lots are then united, and redistilled into long necked flasks, in which the oil separates on standing. To produce one kilo of oil requires 3,000 kilos of roses of 1,200,000 flowers. The roses are gathered in the early morning and distilled the same day. The pure oil from the various districts shows variations in odor and physical properties and is therefore skillfully blended by the distributing houses before sale. Adulteration is very largely carried on by the peasants, who use ginger grass oil, palma rosa oil, geranium oil, etc The production for 1910 was 3,148 kilos.—The Pharmaceutical Era.

Eight Who Deserve Slaps.

Eight men who deserve to be slapped on the face: He who despises a man of power; he who enters a house uninvited and unwelcomed; he who gives orders in a house not his own; he who takes a seat above his position; he who speaks to one who does not listen to him; he who intrudes on the conversation of others; he who seeks favors from the ungenerous; and he who expects love from his enemies.—From a Persian Saying.

Real Test.

There is something finer than to do right against inclination, and that is to have an inclination to do right. There is something nobler than reluctant obedience, and that is joyful obedience. The rank of virtue is not measured by its disagreeableness, but by its sweetness to the heart that loves it. The real test of character is joy. For what you rejoice in, that you love. And what you love, that you are like.—Henry van Dyke.

Be Careful in Speech.

If in our speech we would need consider how our words will affect those to whom they are spoken—if we would try to hear them with their ears and consider how they accept in their hearts, there would not be much passionate or unadvised speech; certainly there would be few spirits wounded or lives embittered by the words of our lips.—W. G. Horder.

Accentuating Plant Characters.

It has been found that under red light (light through red glass) plants become more robust than in any other. They also become more pronounced in their chief characters—the leafy plant becomes more leafy, all shades of green become more pronounced, the sensitive plant more sensitive and all in every way become highly specialized.

Pigeon Descended Chimney.

When a resident in the London road, Reading, England came downstairs recently, he found perched on the top bar of the grate in the drawing-room a pigeon which had come down the chimney. It had brought with it a considerable quantity of soot. When the occupier opened the windows the pigeon made its escape.

Food Kept Warm.

A flatiron stand will be found useful on the range to keep the contents of a saucepan warm without danger of burning, says the Indianapolis News. It is also useful when one desires food to simmer; there is then no fear of sticking or burning on a hot stove.

Unfortunate English.

The general impression that the Englishman's life is rather prosy is supported by the statement of a Londoner who visited at Clay Center. He said he never had tasted fried chicken or strawberry shortcake, the two being unknown to the culinary art in his country.—Kansas City Star.

Ideals the Guiding Star.

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands. But, like the seafaring man on deserts of water, you choose them as your guides, and following them reach your destiny.—Carl Schurz.

All Have a Duty.

Every man or woman is one of mankind's dear possessions; to his or her just brain, and kind heart and active hands, mankind intrusts some of its hopes for the future.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Changing Hues.

"You are in love with a blonde," remarked the fortune teller, "but after you marry her, beware of a brunette who—" "No danger," remarked the patron; "it's the same woman."—The Ladies' World.

The Average Man.

The average man will hurry to a veterinary when his pet dog gets sick, but he is willing to rely on almost any kind of "dope" when he isn't feeling well himself.

Improved Safety Razor.

The principle of the double-bladed plane has been applied to safety razors, so that the operator shaves with two blades at the same time.

Of all the evil spirts abroad at this hour in the world, insincerity is the most dangerous.—Froude.

HELP THE KIDNEYS

Charleroi Readers Are Learning The Way.

It's the little kidney ills—
The lame, weak or aching back—
The unnoticed urinary disorders—
That may lead to dropsy and Bright's disease.
When the kidneys are weak,
Help them with Doan's Kidney Pills,
A remedy especially for weak kidneys.
Doan's have been used in kidney troubles for 50 years.
Endorsed by 30,000 people—endorsed at home.
Proof in a Charleroi citizen's statement.

Mrs. Brice Ray, 121 Prospect Ave., Charleroi, Pa., says: "I can speak as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time as when I publicly recommended them in 1907. At that time I told of the great benefitt my family had from this remedy, procured at Piper Bros.' Drug Store. Several times since then, Doan's Kidney Pills have been taken with the best of results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE

German American Doctors

Offices 477 Donner Ave.
Open Thursday July 24, 9 a. m

Physicians and Surgeons Eminent in their Profession and Known as Among the Most Successful of Living Specialists locating Permantly.

Their first 100 paments aftere their opening will be treated free (medicines and electricity excepted) until cured in order to quickly prove the success of their special combined Electro-Medical System. Remember date of opening and their location so you may be among the first 100 callers.

Those who suffer from some derangement of the nervous system, some functional disorder or some special chronic disease need some restorative force either in conjunction with or apart from medicinal treatments, to build up the system and restore health. It is idle to expect benefits from any set methods of treatment such as have been employed from time immemorial and too often found a failure. Each case requires individual attention

Electricity

The re-vitalizing force, is a marvelous recuperative agency in nervous debility, weakened vitality and chronic diseases and in special diseases and readily adapts itself to the conditions at hand. If your health has been weakened or destroyed through overwork, nervous worry or the progess of some insidious disease, investigate at once the medical benefits obtained in the ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment. By electricity combined with proper medical treatment. Do not court danger by delay or continue to doctor without benefit when the ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment may prove your early salvation. We have had so many patients who had almost given up hope and since then have wondered why they did not come before. ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatments are invariably beneficial often prolonging life in incurable cases, and wonderful results have been wrought in cases thought incurable. There is no economy in hesitation. Visit us. Remember date of opening and office location and be among the first 100. No cases can be treated by correspondence. Let us examine you free. Lady office attendant for ladies. Men if you can't call during the day call nights before 9 o'clock. Hours 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Offices 477 Donner avenue, Monessen, Pa.

Expectant.

A man slightly under the influence of liquor strolled into the art gallery, wandered about aimlessly for a while and stationed himself in front of a painting of several mermaids half submerged in water. He regarded this picture intently for perhaps a half hour. Then he walked over to an attendant and said: "Shay, ole fellow, what time doesh tide go out, anyway?"

Goes Either Way.

A machine operable from either end, like a street car, has been evolved in England, and it is probable that the first car will make its appearance on London streets in a short time. The 'bus is steerable from either end, and when it is desired to proceed in the reverse direction, it is only necessary for the driver and conductor to change places

Two Apologies.

An American editor advertises for his missing hat: "The gentleman who inadvertently took our new beaver, and left an inferior article in its stead, will do us infinite kindness by returning ours. He shall receive our warmest thanks and two apologies—an apology for the trouble we have given him, and the 'apology for a hat he has left us."—London Telegraph.

Banishment Note.

A tested treatment that has been found excellent for ridding a house of beetles and cockroaches is made as follows:—Procure half a pound of Indian meal and half a pound of borax and pound them well together until they are well mixed. Place a handful on paper in convenient places where the beetles will soon find it.

Certain Old School Books.

The state board urges that all old school books be sterilized and tells how it can be done to the damage of the bacteria, but not to the books. We suppose it is right. It is better that children live healthfully than that so time honored an institution as the combination school book and towel survive.—Toledo Blade.

Chickens Lack Originality.

Abby, the littlest girl of the family, was seated at the breakfast table one morning. As usual, eggs were served. Either she was not hungry or she had grown tired of the inevitable bill of fare, for very earnestly and soberly she remarked: "I do wish hens would lay something besides eggs."

Truly a Mean Man.

"That was the meanest crook I ever ran across," said the police officer in a community where graft prevails. "What has he done?" "He got me to fix up an iron-clad system of 'protection' for him and his gang, and then robbed the savings bank where I put my rake-off."

Compassionable Nature.

"I haven't much objection to you personally," said Mr. Cumrox, "but you know my daughter has been accustomed to every luxury." "Well," replied the confident suitor, "I won't ask her to give up anything on my account. I think I could go along and enjoy luxuries as much as anybody."

Change in Father.

When father drove old Dobbin he sat upon a load and frowned on every chauffeur who wanted half the road, but when father got an auto his feelings seemed to switch, he glared at every horse he met unless it took the ditch.—Ashland Bugle.

Felt Himself Defrauded.

Householder—"I give you my word, three seventy-five is all I have in the house." Burglar—"Well, say! When ye figure me time, an' me tools, how d'ye expect me to make any profit at that rate?"—Life.

Of a Copper Hew.

Here is an essay composed by a boy of nine on Cromwell: "Cromwell was a wicked man, and killed lots of men. He had a nose of copper hew, under which dwelt a truly religious soul"—Christian Life.

Ingenious Excuse.

A teamster charged with overloading his horse was asked how heavy a load he had on his van. "About a ton," he replied, "but it was all light stuff!"

Acquired Information.

"In case you're asked," said the judge, "take it from me that the last letter of the alphabet is 'z'." "I've learnt something today," remarked the prisoner, gratefully.

Butter to the Rescue.

Many people who live at the expense of others seek to mitigate the bitterness of the bread of charity by spreading it very thick with other people's butter.—The Tattler.

Spoiling Boy's Fun.

The scientist who eradicates the measles germ will not be regarded as a friend by the boy who would rather be an interesting invalid than go to school.

Fortunate Discovery.

Proprietor—"Well, sir, how did you find the beef?" Diner—"Oh, I happened to shift a potato, and—well there it was."

TURNED THE JOKE ON BISHOP

Great Episcopal Churchman Found That Rabbi Could Give as Good a Shot as He Got.

Mrs. Champ Clark, who is as well known for her brilliancy in conversation as her husband, the speaker of the house of representatives, is for his fame in politics, tells this story:

The late Bishop Potter of New York had a most unclerical relish for practical jokes and pointed anecdotes. His cosmopolitan spirit loved men and things, and nothing pleased him better than to gather a group of congenial spirits about him and swap jokes.

One day he met a friend, a distinguished Jewish rabbi, and said to him in great seriousness:

"Rabbi, I am greatly worried about a dream I had the other night. I dreamed I died and went to the Jewish heaven. And who do you suppose were the only occupants?"

"I don't know, I'm sure," said the rabbi.

"Pawnbrokers and second-hand clothing men," laughed the bishop.

The rabbi said nothing.

Shortly after, however, he met the bishop. "Why bishop," he said, "I had a dream myself the other night."

"Yes," said the bishop uneasily; "and what did you dream?"

"I dreamed I went to the Christian heaven."

"Well," pursued Potter, bracing himself, "who did you find there?"

"Nobody," answered the rabbi.—Popular Magazine.

WHY THE PASTOR WAS LATE

On the Way to a Wedding He Met a Deer, and Stopped to Kill the Animal.

The Rev. H. H. Thomas, pastor of the Baptist church at Greenwood and Womley, started to Greenwood to officiate at a wedding, and, says the Arkansas Gazette, after a six mile drive from Mount Ida he saw a large deer chased by a pack of hounds.

The preacher forgot about the wedding and followed the deer. He approached the large buck, which came to him, and they "locked horns." The deer lost his footing, and so did the minister, and they went tumbling down the hillside together.

"I came up on top," said the preacher, "and in some way I got my knife open and cut the deer's throat, and while holding to the long, shaggy horns the deer gave a big leap with me and jumped into the water, carrying me with him. There he died in a few minutes and I pulled him out, got a wagon and hauled the deer into Mount Ida."

The preacher, after being three hours late, telephoned to Greenwood, and, buying a new suit of clothes, served at the wedding of W. R. Burt and Miss Lillian Anderson.

Compliments of the Season.

Whether or not this story, sent to the London Telegraph by its Paris correspondent, is fact or invention, it has so delightful a flavor of the Orient that every one will feel that it ought to be true:

When the sultan of Turkey gave orders for the mobilization of his troops he sent the king of Bulgaria a sack of millet with the following letter:

"Ferdinand Effendi. Mobilize if you like, but be assured that there are as many soldiers in Turkey as there are grains of millet in this sack. Now, if you wish, declare war."

Ferdinand's reply was in kind. He sent a much smaller sack, filled with tiny grains of the hottest red pepper of the country. With it went the following letter:

"Dear Sultan. The Bulgarians are not numerous, it is true, but be assured that to stick your nose into their affairs is like sticking it into our national condiment. Try it and see. They will sting you so sharply that the whole of Asia will not be able to save you."—Youth's Companion.

Wealth in Music.

In view of its strange influence over man's heart and life, it is no wonder that the greatest minds of all ages have taxed all language to express their conception of the full value of music. Our education is too gross and utilitarian. We have made too much of the intellect and too little of the feelings. No parent has done his full duty to his child until during the precious memory years before sixteen he has given the child's mind as a precious memory forever the great patriotic hymns of home and native land, the folklore hymns of his race, the great classic hymns that sing of man's need and the pathos of God's love, the sublimity of immortality and mystery that lies beyond. For music has full power of pathos and sublimity and can lift man into the ether of the upper world, can wash the dust from the soul's wings and make it triumphant.—N. D. Hillis.

Lack of Space.

Charles H. Taylor, Jr., one of the owners of the Boston Globe, was very busy in his office one morning when there appeared before him Charles S. Howard, the dramatic editor of the paper, with a big kick about his criticisms having been cut down so that they filled a very little space.

"Can't help it," said Taylor crisply. "The paper is crowded with advertisements, and they mean money. We must keep that dramatic stuff cut down."

"Well, by thunder!" exploded Howard. "I guess next year you'll be ordering me to write wordless criticisms."

"Oh, no," said Taylor lightly; "not wordless—just spaceless."

Granting unto the Westside Electric Street Railway Company, its Lessees, Successors and Assigns, the Right to Relocate its North Bound Track Between First and Second Streets in the Borough of Charleroi, Washington County, Pennsylvania.

Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Charleroi and it is ordained and enacted by the authority of the same:

Sec. 1. YELLOW POWDER IN FASHION

Women of France Now Affect Complexion Showing a Suggestion of Sunburn.

This is the day of the yellow complexion in France. Gone is the fashion of the pearl white powder with which the French woman used to cover her face, achieving a peaches and cream effect or more often a chalky and interesting pallor. Now, to be really in the mode, a woman must use a yellow powder which gives the skin a slight suggestion of sunburn, a good healthy look which might have been brought back from the Swiss mountains or the Egyptian deserts.

One sees this yellow powder used everywhere, at the opera and the theater, in the drawing room and in the Bois de Boulogne, while the grisettes and the little ladies of Montmartre and St. Michelle, quick to follow the fashions, are also adopting it. There is much discussion as to how such a fashion started. The favorite explanation is that a certain professional beauty whose skin refused the pearl powder and delicate pink rouge finally resigned herself to using the yellow powder and appearing healthy and sunburned, and she looked so charming that she started the vogue of the yellow skin, which all Paris is following.

SAW THINGS IN A NEW LIGHT

Factory Proprietor Brought to Realize Value of Sanitary Surroundings for His Workpeople.

Scott Nearing tells in his book, Social Religion, about a factory inspector who insisted that the owner of the factory whitewash the inside of the building.

"'Whitewash this factory,' stormed the owner. 'Why, I can't afford it; it will cost me $1,500!'

"'You will obey my order, or I'll swear out a warrant,' said the inspector.

"The building was whitewashed. On his next visit, six months later, the owner greeted the inspector cordially.

"'You remember the row we had about the whitewash?'

"'Yes, indeed.'

"'Well, sir, that $1,500 was the best money I ever laid out. The building hadn't been touched for ten years, and the whitewash makes it look like new. It is wonderfully cheerful and bright—and the girls have done so much better work that I believe I have already got my money back.'"

Mr. Nearing's comment is that every improvement which makes a more livable place pays. It is to be questioned how many employers and owners of buildings would accept this statement. If a large proportion of them would, the first big advance would be made toward real social religion.—Buffalo Express.

Repetition

Is essential to making an impression. The boy learns the multiplication table by saying it over and over until he can't say it wrong. It is no truer after it is learned than it was before. Repeating it a thousand times does not alter the facts. But repetition does make the knowledge certain.

Repeat

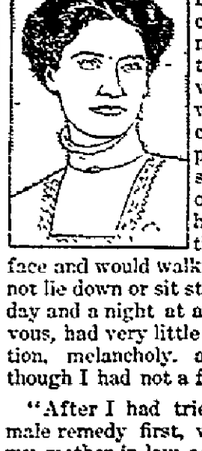
MELANCHOLY WOMEN

Should Profit by Mrs. Hurley's Experience—Her Own Story Here Told.



Eldon, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, organic inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased once a month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world.

"After I had tried most every female remedy first, without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it?

CLIFF DWELLINGS VERY OLD

Head of Surveying Party Says Those of Utah Were Constructed Many Centuries Ago.

Cliff dwellings more than 1,000 years old and buildings of even greater age have been discovered in Utah, according to D. B. Miller, assistant supervisor of the general land office, who has been at the head of a surveying party in that state for the last ten months.

"The cliff dwellings we found in Utah undoubtedly are many hundreds of years old," said Mr. Miller to a Washington Post reporter. "They were doubtless built by the Montezuma Indians. These Indians also built on the mesa lands and many interesting structures were found beneath the surface of these lands. In Utah are three natural bridges that are more wonderful than the natural bridge of Virginia.

"All are wider and two considerably higher than the Virginia bridge. One of these bridges has a span of more than 200 feet and the arch is more than 100 feet from the ground. It seems almost to have been made by man. White persons rarely have visited these wonders of nature.

"The Navajo Indians in Utah are of course well acquainted with all these things. The Navajos are essentially superstitious. They do not mingle much with the whites, and few of them speak English. When one is found who can speak English it is pretty certain he is a sharper.

"My party went into Utah to survey the public lands early last April and remained there until October. During the entire time not a drop of rain fell, and it is curious that all the time we were in that country we were followed about by an old Navajo medicine woman, who persisted in telling the Indians that so long as we stayed there no rain would come.

"We paid no attention to her of course, but we had to give her a thought when on the day we broke camp, within a few hours after we left the Indian lands a terrific storm arose that deluged the whole country. I suppose that the old medicine woman is looked upon by her companions as a supernatural creature."

ELECTRIC SLEEP THE LATEST

Berlin Scientist Claims to Have Found Relief for Nerve Disorders in Humanity.

Electric sleep is to be the great boon of nerve-disordered humanity if the expectations of Dr. F. Nagelschmidt of the Berlin Finsen institute are realized. Some years ago Doctor Leduc produced sleep in animals by applying continuous electric currents to the base of the brain, but the currents necessary were near the danger point, and the claim of Doctor Nagelschmidt is an improved method, using a special alternating current giving narcotic effects without exceeding, or even nearly approaching, the limit of safety. It appears that not only can the number of volts, milliamperes and alternations be fixed as needed, but that the time the current will flow can be predetermined as well. Unconsciousness is produced quickly, awakening follows in a minute or two after the current ceases, and the alternating current not only relieves insomnia, but it has other useful effects, speedily overcoming neuralgic pains, and giving particularly a harmless means of controlling the violent insane without the straitjacket. The electric sleep can be deepened so as to give painless execution of criminals or slaughtering of animals.

Ancient Rome's Manicures.

The fluffy haired girl that holds your hand in a Broadway barber shop for a half hour and puts your nails in tip-top shape for a half-dollar is practicing an art that antedates Caesar himself. Excavations in old Rome have disclosed that hot and cold water service like that in a big town apartment house, manicuring sets, razors, toothpicks and hooks and eyes were as common in the first century as graft investigations are in New York today. The diggers found that the old Romans even had a hot-air heating system, egg poachers and safety pins and cake pans.—New York Press.

Rough on Reynolds.

When James B. Reynolds was assistant secretary of the treasury, Senator Root sent for Mr. Reynolds one day to discuss with him some matters concerning a trade conference in Paris, which Mr. Reynolds had been selected to attend.

"I suppose," said Mr. Root, "you speak French?"

"Well, yes," reponded Mr. Reynolds. "I know a little French. I have no trouble to make the waiters and the cab drivers understand me."

"I see," said Mr. Root. "But, Mr. Reynolds, suppose there would be no waiters and cab drivers in the conference?"—Judge.

Up-to-Date Discretion.

Miss Jane Addams was condemning at Hull House in Chicago a business employing a great deal of sweated labor.

"But, Miss Addams," said a reporter, mentioning a certain firm, "that firm doesn't go in for sweated labor, does it?"

Miss Addams shrugged her shoulders.

"That firm," she replied, "is gifted with a great deal of discretion—and discretion, you know, is the gentle art of not getting found out."

YOUNG FUNERAL SERVICES TO BE HELD ON SUNDAY

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of the B. P. O. Elks of Monongahela for E. Chess Young, aged 32, who was killed in an automobile accident near Washington Sunday. The services will be held at the Young home on Fourth street Monongahela Interment will be in the Monongahela cemetery.

Coroner James T. Heffran has been notified of the death and will make a full investigation. Several persons who have been at the scene of the accident have stated that they regard the piece of road where the accident occurred as dangerous, as the driveway is very near the 12 foot bank, and there being no barrier of any kind to prevent vehicles from going into the stream below.

A Federal victory has been reported in Mexico. That goes to prove that there is an actual war going on down there this minute.

LOCAL RAILROAD MEN FIGURE IN PROMOTIONS

E. F. Krahmer Becomes Supervising Agent of Division

SUCCEEDS E. M. BILES

J. B. Tussing is Appointed Local Agent and H. C Yon Goes to W. Brownsville

Promotions and transfers of an important nature have been announced on the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania Railroad in which W. F. Krahmer, agent at the Charleroi office and J. B. Tussing, of Charleroi, and Harry C. Yon, formerly of Charleroi, figure prominently. By the change Mr. Krahmer, who has been located in charge of the Charleroi office with the title of passenger, baggage and freight agen and Savings Fund Depository at Charleroi. will be made supervising agent of the Monongahela division, and Mr. Tussing will take Mr. Krahmer's place. The changes will be effective on next Monday, July 14.

The general transfer of men has been occasioned primarily by the shooting recently of J. A. McNair, passenger agent at Pennsylvania station, Pittsburg.

E. M. Biles, who has been the supervising agent of the Monongahela division assumes the position left vacant by the untimely demise of Mr. McNair. Mr. Krahmer is moved to Mr. Biles' place. J. B. Tussing has been the freight and scale agent at West Brownsville and he will simply be brought to Charleroi. Harry C. Yon who has been an extra agent will become freight and scale agent at West Brownsville. David S. Brown of South Duquesne will become an extra passenger baggage and freight agent and Savings Fund Depository.

Mr. Krahmer who becomes supervising agent has been connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad 24 years, 13 of which he spent in Charleroi as agent. He took employment with the railroad first at West Elizabeth and served in various positions, such as clerk and operator until he was transferred to Charleroi to take the position here. His work as agent has been of such nature as to attract the attention of the officials. In his new duties he will directly answerable to A. G. Mitchell, the superintendent of the Monongahela division and he will have considerable power and responsibility.

Like Mr. Krahmer, Mr. Tussing has been with the railroad several years. He lives in Charleroi and his friends here are happy to hear of his promotion to the agency at the local station, as they are happy to hear of the promotion of Mr. Krahmer. Both men are popular.

Mr. Yon formerly a resident of Charleroi and has numerous friend here. The promotions and transfers all around are such as to gratify railroad men. Mr. Biles though he is not widely known in Charleroi, is recognized as a man eminetly fitted for the duties that will fall upon him.

Well Shows Good Flow

Greensboro Gas Company Believes It Has Made Lucky Strike

After drilling for about 35 days the Greensboro Gas company has struck what it is believed will prove a good flow of gas on the farm of the Jacobs heirs, near Brownsville. The company has been drilling on several farms in the vicinity of Brownsville and this is the first they have struck gas of a paying nature. The Greensboro Gas furnishes gas to Charleroi, California and Brownsville, among other towns.

AFTER STATE BANNER

County Adult Class Superintendent Gets Campaign Started

SENDS OUT LETTERS

Elected superintendent of the Organized Adult Bible Class department of the Washington County Sabbath School Association at the recent meeting in Washington, W. S. James of Charleroi is laying plans for an active campaign that will bring to Washington county the state banner for perfecton in the work. Mr. James is preparing letters to be sent out to the district superintendents of the Adult Bble class work and to district presidents, urging their help and cooperaton.

In his letters Mr. James asks that all classes be rounded up in the county that are already organized and reports made by the first of August and that whatever classes are in need of being organized to organize them.

The State convention is to be held this year on October 8, 9, and 10. Annually a state banner is awarded to the county showing the best results and it is this banner that Mr. James and his co-workers are going to make an effort to secure.

STRIKE IS DECLARED AT CRESCENT MINE

Miners Complain That Employing Company Refuses to Listen to Grievances and Follow Complaints With Action

Nine hundred men walked out at the Crescent mine of the River Coal company Friday comprising practically the entire force and work is at a standstill with prospects for a long and hard fought strike.

The strike is the result of dissatisfaction which has been long brewing but the matter was brought to a head by the discharge of two machine men, George Campbell and Harry Mitchell for alleged minor offenses. Friction between the officials and the miners has also grown out of the demand of the miners for 50 cents pay for drilling nine foot holes, the extra three feet of auger to be furnished by the company. This the company refused to do, offering but 45 cents, miners to furnish the extension to the augers themselves.

Another contributing cause was the fact that the miners wished to be notified when a man was killed in the mine so that work could be suspended that day.

A meeting was held Thursday night at which the grievances were laid before the miners and a strike was instructed. Another meeting was held Friday at Daisytown at which the miners were addressed by speakers in their own tongue.

The Crescent, one of the largest mines on the river is lying idle and will remain so until some agreement can be reached between employers and miners.

RIVER SHOWS HOW IT MIGHT ACT WHEN MAD

Some indication of what might happen in case of a heavy flood while the work on the new coffer dam at Lock No. 4 is under way was given Friday. The river attained a stage of about one-half foot over the coffer dam work and nearly to the top of the regular lock. It so happened that little damage was done, only delay being occasioned, but the power of the water was demonstrated. After work on the new lock is well under way a flood is likely to cause great trouble.

MONESSEN MAN DIES SUDDENLY; KNOWN HERE

Harry N. Blumling, aged 32 years assistant master mechanic at the Pittsburg Steel plant and one of the best known young men of Monessen, is dead at his home on Schoonmaker avenue, that borough, from uremic poisoning. Mr. Blumling's illness was of less than one week's duration. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blumling of Sharpsburg, who with his widow the parents and four brother sand three sisters survive. His widow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. King of Monessen. Mr. Blumling was a member of the Knights of Columbus, Knights of St. George, Protected Home Circle, the Elks and the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Sharpsburg.

CICERO GETS SENTENCE TO WORKHOUSE

Frank Cicero, convicted at the May term of criminal court on a charge of manslaughter, was sentenced Thursday afternoon by Judge R. S. Holt, of Beaver county, who sat in the trial of the case, to pay the costs fine of $1 and to undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for a year and six months.

Following the conviction of Frank Cicero his counsel, J. Olan Yarnell and Underwood & Meloy filed a motion to have the verdict set aside. The matter was put on the argument list and held up until Judge Holt could find time to come to Washington to hear the arguments.

R. G. Miller, district attorney, argued the case for the commonwealth. Following the argument the court overruled the motion of the defendant's counsel. District Attorney Miller moved for judgment and Cicero was sentenced.

The crime for which he was convicted was the killing of Santo Cicero at California on Christmas morning last. At the same time Frank Geneoa was fatally wounded and died later.

Tried with Frank Cicero was Charles Darbin and John Darbin, brothers, who were acquainted. They were also known under the name of Spallino. The killing of Santo Cicero and Frank Geneo was the outcome of a fight that started over a card game at the Darbin home on Christmas eve and prolonged into Christmas morning.

The evidence showed a general fight, several guns fired and promiscuous shooting.

The conviction of Frank Cicero placed him in the position of being guilty of killing his own brother. After the fight of that morning all the participants disappeared. The Darbins were apprehended at Streator Ill., and Frank Cicero later gave himself up. Others who were at the Darbin place at the time of the fight were never apprehended.

GAMES AS BENEFITS NET $200

Playgrounds Profit From Baseball Contests Locally

REGULAR REPORT MADE

Through two benefit baseball games played during the spring approximately $200 was realized for the playgrounds according to a report made today by John B. Schafer, president of the Playgrounds Auxiliary. The first game was played between the Indianapolis Federal league team, of which Bill Phillops is the manager and the Charleroi Independents. The second game was played between two teams selected from among the business men.

As a financial proposition the Indianapolis-Charleroi game was the best, the sum of $147.05 being realized. The total amount taken in for this game was $176.72 and expenses were $ 29.67.

The more recent game between the business men's teams resulted in $54.05 being cleared. The total amount received for this game was $60.45, and the expenses amounted to $6.40. This makes the aggregate total $202.-10.

THE PEOPLE TO ACT.

The fact that the politicians of Pittsburg are not breaking their necks to get into the mayoralty contest at the coming primaries in September is significant. One of the chief reasons for the delay in announcing on the part of prospective candidates is that Governor Tener has not yet disposed of the non-partisan ballot act passed by the last legislature. This act, if approveed, puts a different construction on the campaign It would compel every candidate to announce impersonally without the backing of a party organization, and to make the campaign on his own personal merits. Until the governor either approves or vetoes the act, prospective candidates do not know where they are at.

Another reason, that is causing candidates to hesitate in announcing is the feeling that the people and not the politicians are going to determine the coming election. All the civic and religious bodies are preparing to take a hand, and the candidate wants to make sure that he can stand well with the people as well as the politicians. The voters who are interested in good government and efficient public service, and who outnumber the politicians five to one are taking more interest in public affairs lately and coming events indicate that the old regime in politics has some hard sledding in store for it. This sentiment is prevalent over all the country, and is manifested right here in Charleroi. There is evidence on all sides that the people are aroused over the type of public service they have been getting, and as has been potently remarked, when the people get mad clear through, there is no resisting them

GOOD CROPS.

Along with the reports of the national department of agriculture that while the intelligence gleaned from all over the country do not indicate record breaking crops conditions are fair, and ofredictons are no crop will be a failure, is the announcement from varous parts of this county that the outlook is equally good. Throughout Washington county it is stated that wheat, oats and hay are turning up to the standard, while corn promises to be equal to the crop of

This is welcome intelligence. The weather conditions have been most unfavorable this season floods and frosts prevailing over wide areas of the country at different times The damage, however is not so wide-spread as feared, and crop indications are average at least. An average crop, however, does not indicate that food products will be any lower. On the contrary they will be higher, if anything, as this is now a consuming instead of a producing nation agriculturally. Only more and better farming will relieve the situation in regard to the high cost of living and this must be realized widely before all our waste farming resources are utilized It is fortunate that an average crop is indicated, as anything below this would mean big advances in the cost of food products

"Coming home on a Pittsburg car resident "I was amused at a little incident that occurred while we were in the suburbs. The car was crowded and two women hanging onto a strap with their backs to each other happened to turn about just as one of them signaled the car to stop at a street corner. As she stepped to the door she recognized the woman she had been standing near and immediately stopped to talk

"Oh, Julia," she exclaimed. 'I didn't know that was you standing near me. Where have you been keeping yourself? I haven't seen you for an age.' And she branched off into a loud discourse, telling all about herself and her prospective actions during the season.

"In the meantime the conductor, waiting a reasonable length of time and seeing no one alight, signaled the car to go on About the middle of the block the talkative woman recollected herself and found that she had been carried past her destination.

"'I will most assuredly report you,' she indignately informed the conductor, as she alighted at the next corner"

A recent visitor to the Gettysburg encampment states that one of the most interesting places there was the lost and found bureau, located under the benches in the big tent Everything found on the grounds was brought there and thousands applied every day for missing articles.

There were at least 100 crutches piled up in the bureau, a dozen or so applicants having called for them Those who came to redeem them lost crutches seldom recognize them and most of them go away with some body else's.

There was one wooden leg also lying unclaimed. It was brought in by a Boy Scout, who had found it under a tree

Several sets of false teeth were found.

BASEBALL FOR THE FARMER

Possibly the Game Might Be of Benefit to Him, But It Is Hardly Indispensable.

Baseball never has been regarded exclusively as a city product. While it is true that the cities supply the enormous crowds that support the big leagues, it is equally true that many of the players in those leagues are graduates of the "bush" leagues. The country boy has an equal chance with the city boy to win the high honors and generous emoluments of a successful ball player. The farmer himself has not come directly in touch with the national game, perhaps, except on a rare holiday. A professor in the Kansas State Agricultural college calls this a mistake. Familiarity with the game, he believes, would promote success in agriculture. If the farmer would play ball "it would take the shamble out of his walk" and "make him double quicker". This is an interesting theory, but it will not be universally accepted. Some will contend that the motor car has already taken the "shamble" out of the farmer's walk. Others will insist that handling a high spirited horse or pitching a load of hay on a wagon while a thunderstorm is gathering is just as valuable in training his mental faculties to quick action.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Rose Culture in Bulgaria.

White and red roses are grown, the former being easier to cultivate, but giving only about half as much oil of an inferior quality. The individual growers distil their own oil. Twelve to fifteen kilos of roses are distilled with 60 kilos of water until 12 kilos of distillate are obtained; eight to ten such lots are then united, and redistilled into long necked flasks, in which the oil separates on standing. To produce one kilo of oil requires 3,000 kilos of roses of 1,200,000 flowers. The roses are gathered in the early morning and distilled the same day. The pure oil from the various districts shows variations in odor and physical properties and is therefore skillfully blended by the distributing houses before sale Adulteration is very largely carried on by the peasants, who use ginger grass oil, palma rosa oil, geranium oil, etc. The production for 1910 was 3,148 kilos.—The Pharmaceutical Era.

Real Test.

There is something finer than to do right against inclination, and that is to have an inclination to do right. There is something nobler than reluctant obedience, and that is joyful obedience. The rank of virtue is not measured by its disagreeableness, but by its sweetness to the heart that loves it. The real test of character is joy. For what you rejoice in, that you love And what you love, that you are like.—Henry van Dyke.

Be Careful in Speech.

If in our speech we would need consider how our words will affect those to whom they are spoken—if we would try to hear them with their ears and consider how they accept in their passionate or unadvised speech; certainly there would be few spirits wounded or lives embittered by the words of our lips.—W. G. Horder.

When the occupier opened the windows the pigeon made its escape.

Food Kept Warm.

A flatiron stand will be found useful on the range to keep the contents of a saucepan warm without danger of burning, says the Indianapolis News. It is also useful when one desires food to simmer; there is then no fear of sticking or burning on a hot stove.

Unfortunate English.

The general impression that the Englishman's life is rather prosy is supported by the statement of a Londoner who visited at Clay Center He said he never had tasted fried chicken or strawberry shortcake, the two being unknown to the culinary art in his country—Kansas City Star.

"Bait" Was Good.

"How did you come to buy that worthless mining stock?" "Well, you see, I thought it was all right. The man who sold it to me had mahogany furniture in his office, tall brass cuspoors and a swell rug on his floor."—Detroit Free Press.

Adam's Satisfaction.

Adam was surveying the animals he was called upon to name. He smiled with satisfaction as he remarked: "Whatever else may happen, there never will be a shortage in the supply of party emblems."

Ideals the Guiding Star.

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands But, like the seafaring man on deserts of water, you choose them as your guides, and following them reach your destiny—Carl Schurz.

All Have a Duty.

Every man or woman is one of mankind's dear possessions; to his or her just brain, and kind heart and active hands, mankind intrusts some of its hopes for the future—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Changing Hues.

"You are in love with a blonde," remarked the fortune teller, "but after you marry her, beware of a brunette who—" "No danger," remarked the patron; "it's the same woman."—The Ladies' World.

The Average Man.

The average man will hurry to a veterinary when his pet dog gets sick, but he is willing to rely on almost any kind of "dope" when he isn't feeling well himself.

Improved Safety Razor.

The principle of the double-bladed plane has been applied to safety razors, so that the operator shaves with two blades at the same time.

Little Satisfaction.

A mummy gets blamed little satisfaction from winning the endurance prize.—Atchison Globe.

Evil of Insincerity.

Of all the evil spirits abroad at this hour in the world insincerity is the most dangerous.—Ruskin.

HELP THE KIDNEYS

Charleroi Readers Are Learning The Way.

It's the little kidney ills—

The lame, weak or aching back—

The unnoticed urinary disorders—

That may lead to dropsy and Bright's disease.

When the kidneys are weak,

Help them with Doan's Kidney Pills,

A remedy especially for weak kidneys.

Doan's have been used in kidney troubles for 50 years.

Endorsed by 30,000 people—endorsed at home.

Proof in a Charleroi citizen's statement.

Mrs. Brice Ray, 121 Prospect Ave., Charleroi, Pa., says: "I can speak as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills at the present time as when I publicly recommended them in 1907. At that time I told of the great benefitt my family had from this remedy, procured at Piper Bros.' Drug Store. Several times since then, Doan's Kidney Pills have been taken with the best of results"

THE

German American Doctors

Offices 477 Donner Ave. Open Thursday July 24, 9 a. m

Physicians and Surgeons Eminent in their Profession and Known as Among the Most Successful of Living Specialists locating Permantly.

Their first 100 patients aftere their opening will be treated free (medicines and electricity excepted) until cured in order to quickly prove the success of their special combined Electro-Medical System. Remember date of opening and their location so you may be among the first 100 callers.

These who suffer from some derangement of the nervous system, some functional disorder or some special chronic disease need some restorative force either in conjunction with or apart from medicinal treatments, to build up the system and restore health. It is idle to expect benefits from any set methods of treatment such as have been employed from time immemorial and too often found a failure. Each case requires individual attention.

Electricity

The re-vitalizing force, is a marvelous recuperative agency in nervous debility, weakened vitality and chronic diseases and in special diseases and readily adapts itself to the conditions at hand. If your health has been weakened or destroyed through overwork, nervous worry or the progess of some insidious disease, investigate at once the medical benefits obtained in the ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment. By electricity combined with proper medical treatment. Do not court danger by delay or continue to doctor without benefit when the ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment may prove your early salvation. We have had so many patients who had almost given up hope and since then have wondered why they did not come before. ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatments are invariably beneficial often prolonging life in incurable cases, and wonderful results have been wrought in cases thought incurable. There is no economy in hesitation. Visit us. Remember date of opening and office location and be among the first 100. No cases can be treated by correspondence. Let us examine you free. Lady office attendant for ladies. Men if you can't call during the day call nights before 9 o'clock. Hours 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Offices 477 Donner avenue, Monessen, Pa.

Expectant.

A man slightly under the influence of liquor strolled into the art gallery, wandered about aimlessly for a while and stationed himself in front of a painting of several mermaids half submerged in water. He regarded this picture intently for perhaps a half hour. Then he walked over to an attendant and said: "Shay, ole fellow, what time doesh tide go out, anyway?"

Goes Either Way.

A machine operable from either end, like a street car, has been evolved in England, and it is probable that the first car will make its appearance on London streets in a short time. The 'bus is steerable from either end, and when it is desired to proceed in the reverse direction, it is only necessary for the driver and conductor to change places.

Two Apologies.

An American editor advertises for his missing hat: "The gentleman who inadvertently took our new beaver, and left an inferior article in its stead, will do us infinite kindness by returning ours. He shall receive our warmest thanks and two apologies—an apology for the trouble we have given him, and the apology for a hat he has left us."—London Telegraph.

Banishment Note.

A tested treatment that has been found excellent for ridding a house of beetles and cockroaches is made as follows:—Procure half a pound of Indian meal and half a pound of borax and pound them well together until they are well mixed. Place a handful on paper in convenient places where the beetles will soon find it.

Certain Old School Books.

The state board urges that all old school books be sterilized and tells how it can be done to the damage of the bacteria, but not to the books. We suppose it is right. It is better that children live healthfully than that so time honored an institution as the combination school book and towel survive.—Toledo Blade.

Chickens Lack Originality.

Abby, the littlest girl of the family, was seated at the breakfast table one morning. As usual, eggs were served. Either she was not hungry or she had grown tired of the inevitable bill of fare, for very earnestly and soberly she remarked: "I do wish hens would lay something besides eggs."

Truly a Mean Man.

"That was the meanest crook I ever ran across," said the police officer in a community where graft prevails. "What has he done?" "He got me to fix up an iron-clad system of 'protection' for him and his gang, and then robbed the savings bank where I put my rake-off."

Compassionable Nature.

"I haven't much objection to you personally," said Mr. Cumrox, "but you know my daughter has been accustomed to every luxury." "Well," replied the confident suitor, "I won't ask her to give up anything on my account. I think I could go along and enjoy luxuries as much as anybody."

Change in Father.

When father drove old Dobbin he sat upon a load and frowned on every chauffeur who wanted half the road, but when father got an auto his feelings seemed to switch, he glared at every horse he met unless it took the ditch.—Ashland Bugle.

Felt Himself Defrauded.

Householder—"I give you my word, three seventy-five is all I have in the house." Burglar—"Well, say! When ye figure me time, an' me tools, how d'ye expect me to make any profit at that rate?"—Life.

Of a Copper Hew.

Here is an essay composed by a boy of nine on Cromwell: "Cromwell was a wicked man, and killed lots of men. He had a nose of copper hew, under which dwelt a truly religious soul."—Christian Life.

Ingenious Excuse.

A teamster charged with overloading his horse was asked how heavy a load he had on his van. "About a ton," he replied, "but it was all light stuff!"

Acquired Information.

"In case you're asked," said the judge, "take it from me that the last letter of the alphabet is 'z.'" "I've learnt something today," remarked the prisoner, gratefully.

TURNED THE JOKE ON BISHOP

Great Episcopal Churchman Found That Rabbi Could Give as Good a Shot as He Got.

Mrs. Champ Clark, who is as well known for her brilliancy in conversation as her husband, the speaker of the house of representatives, is for his fame in politics, tells this story:

The late Bishop Potter of New York had a most unclerical relish for practical jokes and pointed anecdotes. His cosmopolitan spirit loved men and things, and nothing pleased him better than to gather a group of congenial spirits about him and swap jokes.

One day he met a friend, a distinguished Jewish rabbi, and said to him in great seriousness:

"Rabbi, I am greatly worried about a dream I had the other night. I dreamed I died and went to the Jewish heaven. And who do you suppose were the only occupants?"

"I don't know, I'm sure," said the rabbi.

"Pawnbrokers and second-hand clothing men," laughed the bishop.

The rabbi said nothing.

Shortly after, however, he met the bishop. "Why bishop," he said, "I had a dream myself the other night."

"Yes," said the bishop uneasily; "and what did you dream?"

"I dreamed I went to the Christian heaven."

"Well," pursued Potter, bracing himself, "who did you find there?"

"Nobody," answered the rabbi.—Popular Magazine.

WHY THE PASTOR WAS LATE

On the Way to a Wedding He Met a Deer, and Stopped to Kill the Animal.

The Rev. H. H. Thomas, pastor of the Baptist church at Greenwood and Womley, started to Greenwood to officiate at a wedding, and, says the Arkansas Gazette, after a six mile drive from Mount Ida he saw a large deer chased by a pack of hounds.

The preacher forgot about the wedding and followed the deer. He approached the large buck, which came to him, and they "locked horns." The deer lost his footing, and so did the minister, and they went tumbling down the hillside together.

"I came up on top," said the preacher, "and in some way I got my knife open and cut the deer's throat, and while holding to the long, shaggy horns the deer gave a big leap with me and jumped into the water, carrying me with him. There he died in a few minutes and I pulled him out, got a wagon and hauled the deer into Mount Ida."

The preacher, after being three hours late, telephoned to Greenwood, and, buying a new suit of clothes, served at the wedding of W. R. Burt and Miss Lillian Anderson.

Compliments of the Season.

Whether or not this story, sent to the London Telegraph by its Paris correspondent, is fact or invention, it has so delightful a flavor of the Orient that every one will feel that it ought to be true:

When the sultan of Turkey gave orders for the mobilization of his troops he sent the king of Bulgaria a sack of millet with the following letter:

"Ferdinand Effendi. Mobilize if you like, but be assured that there are as many soldiers in Turkey as there are grains of millet in this sack. Now, if you wish, declare war."

Ferdinand's reply was in kind. He sent a much smaller sack, filled with tiny grains of the hottest red pepper of the country. With it went the following letter:

"Dear Sultan. The Bulgarians are not numerous, it is true, but be assured that to stick your nose into their affairs is like sticking it into our national condiment. Try it and see. They will sting you so sharply that the whole of Asia will not be able to save you."—Youth's Companion.

Wealth in Music.

In view of its strange influence over man's heart and life, it is no wonder that the greatest minds of all ages have taxed all language to express their conception of the full value of music. Our education is too gross and utilitarian. We have made too much of the intellect and too little of the feelings. No parent has done his full duty to his child until during the precious memory years before sixteen he has given the child's mind as a precious memory forever the great patriotic hymns of home and native land, the folklore hymns of his race, the great classic hymns that sing of man's need and the pathos of God's love, the sublimity of immortality and mystery that lies beyond. For music has full power of pathos and sublimity and can lift man into the ether of the upper world, can wash the dust from the soul's wings and make it triumphant.—N. D. Hillis.

Lack of Space.

Charles H. Taylor, Jr., one of the owners of the Boston Globe, was very busy in his office one morning when there appeared before him Charles S. Howard, the dramatic editor of the paper, with a big kick about his critiams having been cut down so that they filled a very little space.

"Can't help it," said Taylor crisply. "The paper is crowded with advertisements, and they mean money. We must keep that dramatic stuff cut down."

"Well, by thunder!" exploded Howard. "I guess next year you'll be ordering me to write wordless critiams."

"Oh, no," said Taylor lightly; "not wordless—just speechless."

Granting unto the Westside Electric Street Railway Company, its Lessees, Successors and Assigns, the Right to Relocate its North Bound Track Between First and Second Streets in the Borough of Charleroi, Washington County, Pennsylvania.

Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Charleroi and it is ordained and enacted by the authority of the same:

Sec. 1. That permission and consent be and hereby are granted to Westside Electric Street Railway Company, a Pennsylvania corporation, its lessees, successors and assigns, to move and relocate its North Bound track between First and Second Streets in the aforesaid Borough to a position One (1) foot East of its present location so that the dummy or space between its two tracks thereon shall be Five (5) feet.

Sec. 2. The said Company shall indemnify and save harmless the said Borough of Charleroi, and its officers and agents from any and all costs, claims, damages and demands of whatsoever nature by reason of the said relocation.

Sec. 3. All ordinances or parts thereof in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

YELLOW POWDER IN FASHION

Women of France Now Affect Complexion Showing a Suggestion of Sunburn.

This is the day of the yellow complexion in France. Gone is the fashion of the pearl white powder with which the French woman used to cover her face, achieving a peaches and cream effect or more often a chalky and interesting pallor. Now, to be really in the mode, a woman must use a yellow powder which gives the skin a slight suggestion of sunburn, a good healthy look which might have been brought back from the Swiss mountains or the Egyptian deserts.

One sees this yellow powder used everywhere, at the opera and the theater, in the drawing room and in the Bois de Boulogne, while the grisettes and the little ladies of Montmartre and St. Michelle, quick to follow the fashions, are also adopting it. There is much discussion as to how such a fashion started. The favorite explanation is that a certain professional beauty whose skin refused the pearl powder and delicate pink rouge finally resigned herself to using the yellow powder and appearing healthy and sunburned, and she looked so charming that she started the vogue of the yellow skin, which all Paris is following.

SAW THINGS IN A NEW LIGHT

Factory Proprietor Brought to Realize Value of Sanitary Surroundings for His Workpeople.

Scott Nearing tells in his book, Social Religion, about a factory inspector who insisted that the owner of the factory whitewash the inside of the building.

"'Whitewash this factory,' stormed the owner. 'Why, I can't afford it; it will cost me $1,500!'

"'You will obey my order, or I'll swear out a warrant,' said the inspector.

"The building was whitewashed. On his next visit, six months later, the owner greeted the inspector cordially.

"'You remember the row we had about the whitewash?'

"'Yes, indeed.'

"'Well, sir, that $1,500 was the best money I ever laid out. The building hadn't been touched for ten years, and the whitewash makes it look like new. It is wonderfully cheerful and bright—and the girls have done so much better work that I believe I have already got my money back.'"

Mr. Nearing's comment is that every improvement which makes a more livable place pays. It is to be questioned how many employers and owners of buildings would accept this statement. If a large proportion of them would, the first big advance would be made toward real social religion.—Buffalo Express.

Too Good to Lose.

MELANCHOLY WOMEN

Should Profit by Mrs. Hurley's Experience—Her Own Story Here Told.

Eldon, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, organic inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased once a month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world.

"After I had tried most every female remedy first, without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine."—Mrs. Hurley, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, flatulency and indigestion.

CLIFF DWELLINGS VERY OLD

Head of Surveying Party Says Those of Utah Were Constructed Many Centuries Ago.

Cliff dwellings more than 1,000 years old and buildings of even greater age have been discovered in Utah, according to D. B. Miller, assistant supervisor of the general land office, who has been at the head of a surveying party in that state for the last ten months.

"The cliff dwellings we found in Utah undoubtedly are many hundreds of years old," said Mr. Miller to a Washington Post reporter. "They were doubtless built by the Montezuma Indians. These Indians also built on the mesa lands and many interesting structures were found beneath the surface of these lands. In Utah are three natural bridges that are more wonderful than the natural bridge of Virginia.

"All are wider and two considerably higher than the Virginia bridge. One of these bridges has a span of more than 200 feet and the arch is more than 100 feet from the ground. It seems almost to have been made by man. White persons rarely have visited these wonders of nature.

"The Navajo Indians in Utah are of course well acquainted with all these things. The Navajos are essentially superstitious. They do not mingle much with the whites, and few of them speak English. When one is found who can speak English it is pretty certain he is a sharper.

"My party went into Utah to survey the public lands early last April and remained there until October. During the entire time not a drop of rain fell, and it is curious that all the time we were in that country we were followed about by an old Navajo medicine woman, who persisted in telling the Indians that so long as we stayed there no rain would come.

"We paid no attention to her of course, but we had to give her a thought when on the day we broke camp, within a few hours after we left the Indian lands a terrific storm arose that deluged the whole country. I suppose that the old medicine woman is looked upon by her companions as a supernatural creature."

ELECTRIC SLEEP THE LATEST

Berlin Scientist Claims to Have Found Relief for Nerve Disorders in Humanity.

Electric sleep is to be the great boon of nerve-disordered humanity if the expectations of Dr. F. Nagelschmidt of the Berlin Finsen institute are realized. Some years ago Doctor Leduc produced sleep in animals by applying continuous electric currents to the base of the brain, but the currents necessary were near the danger point, and the claim of Doctor Nagelschmidt is an improved method, using a special alternating current giving narcotic effects without exceeding, or even nearly approaching, the limit of safety. It appears that not only can the number of volts, milliamperes and alternations be fixed as needed, but that the time the current will flow can be predetermined as well. Unconsciousness is produced quickly, awakening follows in a minute or two after the current ceases, and the alternating current not only relieves insomnia, but it has other useful effects, speedily overcoming neuralgic pains, and giving particularly a harmless means of controlling the violent insane without the straitjacket. The electric sleep can be deepened so as to give painless execution of criminals or slaughtering of animals.

Ancient Rome's Manicures.

The fluffy haired girl that holds your hand in a Broadway barber shop for a half hour and puts your nails in tip-top shape for a half-dollar is practicing an art that antedates Caesar himself. Excavations in old Rome have disclosed that hot and cold water service like that in a big town apartment house, manicuring sets, razors, toothpicks and hooks and eyes were as common in the first century as graft investigations are in New York today. The diggers found that the old Romans even had a hot-air heating system, egg poachers and safety pins and cake pans.—New York Press.

Rough on Reynolds.

When James B. Reynolds was assistant secretary of the treasury, Senator Root sent for Mr. Reynolds one day to discuss with him some matters concerning a trade conference in Paris, which Mr. Reynolds had been selected to attend.

"I suppose," said Mr. Root, "you speak French?"

"Well, yes," reponded Mr. Reynolds. "I know a little French. I have no trouble to make the waiters and the cab drivers understand me."

"I see," said Mr. Root. "But, Mr. Reynolds, suppose there would be no waiters and cab drivers in the conference?"—Judge.

Up-to-Date Discretion.

Miss Jane Addams was condemning at Hull House in Chicago a business employing a great deal of sweated labor.

"But, Miss Addams," said a reporter, mentioning a certain firm, "that firm doesn't go in for sweated labor, does it?"

Miss Addams shrugged her shoulders.

"That firm," she replied, "is gifted with a great deal of discretion—and discretion, you know, is the gentle art of not getting found out."

YOUNG FUNERAL SERVICES TO BE HELD ON SUNDAY

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of the B. P. O. Elks of Monongahela for E. Chess Young, aged 32, who was killed in an automobile accident near Washington Sunday. The services will be held at the Young home on Fourth street Monongahela. Interment will be in the Monongahela cemetery.

Coroner James T. Heffran has been notified of the death and will make a full investigation. Several persons who have been at the scene of the accident have stated that they regard the piece of road where the accident occurred as dangerous, as the driveway is very near the 12 foot bank, and there being no barrier of any kind to prevent vehicles from going into the stream below.

A Federal victory has been reported in Mexico. That goes to prove that there is an actual war going on down there this minute.
